About Alex Jones

Featured in such publications as The Wall Street Journal, USA Today, The Dallas Morning News, The Los Angeles Times, The Austin-American Statesman, and The Austin Chronicle, Alex Jones, documentary filmmaker and nationally syndicated radio talk show host, has created a powerful platform in an attempt to re-create a Bill of Rights, freedom-orientated culture in the face of an ever more federalized and security-obsessed America.

Jones has appeared on Good Morning America, 20/20 Downtown, 60 Minutes, The Discovery Channel, A&E and more, and has been called, "an absolutely riveting television presence."

Jones has produced seventeen documentary films to date exposing the police state, the New World Order and government sponsored terrorism. In Terrorstorm: A History of Government Sponsored Terrorism (2006), Jones revealed the long history of "false flag" operations by governments worldwide, culminating in the 9/11 and 7/7 attacks. His new film, released on November 13, 2007, Endgame: Blueprint For Human Enslavement, traces the rise to power of a global elite that funds dictators, finances wars and is making rapid progress on a hidden agenda based on domination by terror events, eugenics, and corruption of governments worldwide.

He is considered by many to be the grandfather of what has come to be known as the 9/11 Truth Movement. He predicted the 9/11 attack in a July 2001 television taping when he warned that the Globalists were going to attack New York and blame it on their asset Osama bin Laden.

In early 2002, Jones spearheaded the campaign to repeal the Patriot Act with his Save The Bill of Rights Campaign. Now hundreds of towns, cities and states have thrown out this unconstitutional law.

Jones continues to expose those that seek to take away what made America great, the Bill of Rights, the Constitution and each freedom our founders fought and died for.
