The Real Men in Black

By Nick Redfern

- What is The Real Men in Black about?
- What prompted you to write the book?
- The Men in Black first appeared in the early 1950s, to a UFO investigator named Albert Bender. Can you tell us about his encounters with the MIB?
- Gray Barker was a legendary UFO researcher and writer from the 1950s onwards, and who chronicled the exploits of the MIB in his 1956 book, They Knew Too Much about Flying Saucers. Can you tell us about Barker and what he uncovered?
- The Men in Black turned up during the famous “Mothman” sightings at Point Pleasant, West Virginia, in the 1960s – which became the subject of the Hollywood movie, The Mothman Prophecies, starring Richard Gere. What is the story behind the Mothman-MIB connection?
- Is it true that the Men in Black have been seen at Loch Ness, Scotland, the home of one of the world’s most famous monsters?
- John Keel – the legendary author of The Mothman Prophecies book – had his own face-to-face encounter with the MIB. Will you tell us about that?
- Some people have suggested the MIB are government agents. Does evidence exist to support this theory?
- Another scenario suggests the Men in Black are aliens themselves. What do you think about that?
- In the 1960s, a number of UFO researchers and authors actually managed to photograph the Men in Black. Can you tell us about their experiences?

- In your book, you discuss a weird MIB experience reported by a notable author in London, England, in the early-1980s. What is that story about?
- Can you relate the case of the MIB seen by radio-show host Raven Meindel only a few years ago?
- Marie Jones is a best-selling author of books on mysteries of this world and beyond. What is the story concerning how she was terrorized by the MIB?
- Is it true that some researchers of the MIB phenomenon believe the mysterious men have literal demonic, or supernatural, origins?
- Will you discuss the theories of paranormal author Joshua P. Warren, who has speculated that the Men in Black may be time-travelers from our very own future?
- What is the link between the Men in Black and Ouija-Boards?
- What surprised you most while you were researching the book?
- Have you, personally, ever been threatened by the MIB or felt they were secretly watching you?
- What is your personal opinion on who the Men in Black are?
- What do you hope the publication of your new book, The Real Men in Black, will achieve?
