

UFOs & ALIENS

By Jim Moroney, IHT, BSc, CRSP, CSP

CHAPTER SUMMARY

Alien Intervention

In this essay, Moroney explains the rationale behind the alien intervention. The conclusions he reaches are based as much on his own personal abduction experiences as they are built on the credible research work and experience of others.

Our surging technological accomplishments and propensity for war has outpaced our spiritual development. Fortunately for us, something in this universe has sensed our peril and has decided to intervene in a complex and multifaceted plan to help us save ourselves. Although, the details of this plan remain shrouded in mystery, we can be certain that a deeper relationship with ourselves and these beings will be of paramount importance. Yet, unlike many human relationships, this new type of relationship is anything but typical and can be very, very difficult. The confusion and fear that surrounds it is understandable and even predicable. Jim explains what we know with certainty and encourage us all to fight back the fear that blinds us from seeking the truth as we all endeavour to understand the importance this phenomenon.
