

INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

In La Kesh

By Libby Outlaw

1. What inspired you to write this novel?
2. What does In La Kesh mean? How does it relate to the story?
3. What is the Mayan prophecy? How does it relate to the plot and background for the novel?
4. What makes your novel a “spiritual journey”?
5. Why did you write a novel of fiction instead of a nonfiction personal account of your own journey?
6. What is the central theme of the novel?
7. What character represents you in the novel?
8. What are the 9 principles of spirit? How can the reader find them in the book?
9. What is the difference between historical fact and our personal experience of history?
10. What is the connection between the two women, Mesa and Daughter? How do their journeys centuries apart connect?
11. How do the three generations of women in the book represent archetypal women in our lives?
12. What guides Mesa in her journey?
13. Who is the grandmother? What has she taught Mesa?
14. How is Silas and Mesa’s relationship different from typical young love?
15. What guides them to a partnership instead of hierarchy?