The World's Weirdest Places

By Nick Redfern

1. Why do you think the Bermuda Triangle is such a magnet for high-strangeness?
2. North Wales' Berwyn Mountains are the site of a UFO crash, ghostly black hounds, and a lake-monster. Can you tell us about the story of the Berwyns?
3. What's the story behind the vampires, Bigfoot and strange creatures of Russia's Caucasus Mountains?
4. Can you tell us the spooky story of the deserted city of Bhangarh, India?
5. You discuss in your book the Japanese equivalent of the Bermuda Triangle, the Devil's Sea. What have you discovered about it?
6. Staffordshire, England has a famous cemetery that is reputedly haunted by ghosts, werewolves and giant black cats. What are your views on this paranormal place?
7. Will you reveal your findings on the many UFO sightings, Bigfoot-like encounters, and strange creature events at Guadalcanal in the Solomon Islands?
8. Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada, is renowned for reports of countless ghosts, alien encounters, and sea-serpent sightings. What did you learn from these cases?
9. A flying woman, a massive lake monster, and UFOs have all been reported on or near Vietnam's Han River. What are your thoughts on all this?
10. Why do you think that the old town of Jefferson, Texas has such a high concentration of ghostly activity?
11. In your book you show that the Kremlin, Russia is haunted by the ghosts of former Soviet premiers Lenin and Stalin, and even has its own crashed UFO legend to rival Roswell. Tell us of your findings.

12. Loch Ness, Scotland is home, of course, to the Loch Ness Monster. But, you have found that there are far stranger and even more paranormal things at Loch Ness. What are they?
13. Your research into Mount Shasta, California comprises tales of Sasquatch, ancient races such as the people of Atlantis, and secret underground caves and caverns. What do you think is going on there?
14. Panteon de Belen, Guadalajara, Mexico is quite possibly the nation's most haunted cemetery. Will you reveal the stories you uncovered of the creatures that lurk there?
15. You have a chapter in your book about massive amounts of strange and paranormal activity deep in the New York City Subway. What is that all about?
16. Reykjavik, Iceland has long been the rumored home of trolls, goblins and magical beasts. Will you please share with us your findings?
17. Any mention of Roswell, New Mexico, inevitably conjures up imagery of the legendary UFO crash of 1947. But you reveal that Roswell is filled with tales of ghosts, specters and the walking dead. Could you detail what you have unearthed?
18. Sedona, Arizona is a magical and profoundly spiritual place, one filled with vortexes and magical beings. What are your theories for this?
19. What is the truth of the sightings of numerous ghosts, strange creatures and unknown animals in and around Sydney, Australia?
20. Taushida, Guyana is described in your book like a real-life Jurassic Park, filled with giant snakes, lake-monsters, and hairy ape-men. Are creatures from a lost age still roaming around the wilds of Guyana?
