

DIVINE GUIDANCE OR JUST MAKING IT UP?

When God Spoke to Me* by DavidPaul Doyle

How can one know whether their sudden inspiration, insight, or shift in experience is the result of receiving divine guidance or simply the results of their own wishful thinking? Luckily, DavidPaul Doyle, the author of When God Spoke to Me: The Inspiring Stories Of Ordinary People Who Have Received Divine Guidance and Wisdom, has sought the answers.

Over the past five years, DavidPaul has interviewed hundreds of people from around the world about their experiences of receiving divine communication. In studying these diverse true-life accounts, as well as his own personal experiences of hearing God's voice, DavidPaul has identified the primary components of divine communication and a simple litmus test that anyone can use to determine whether they are hearing God's voice, or not. DavidPaul will share these key components with your audience and teach them how to apply this litmus test in their lives.
