

About the Author

Colin Andrews

Colin Andrews is a veteran researcher of unusual phenomena currently enjoying a burgeoning resurgence of public and media interest. Since 1983 he has supplied the public and British government with pioneering research. Colin is known around the world for his groundbreaking work with Crop Circles (a term he coined), UFO and Consciousness Research. He has recently attracted international attention with his discovery of the radar anomalies in Australia, subsequently confounding the Australian Bureau of Meteorology. He is the co-author of two bestselling books and the author of four alternative science classics. His website www.colinandrews.net is ranked as the 715,400th most popular website worldwide, a considerable ranking, with peaks of 23,000 visitors a day.

Colin has a high public profile, appearing in over 100 television documentaries including productions by National Geographic, Discovery, and History's Mysteries. He is currently featured in two documentaries to be released in 2012 by National Geographic and Norwegian Television.

A favorite speaker on well known television and radio programs, Colin has been featured on 60 Minutes, 20-20 with Barbara Walters, Good Morning America, Sightings, Unsolved Mysteries with Robert Stack, Coast To Coast, The Shirley Maclaine Show, Dan Aykroyd's Out There, The Sally Jessy Raphael Show, BBC's Daytime Live, The Ray Martin Show, National Geographic, Nippon TV's Thursday Special, The Gloria Hunniford Show, History v Hollywood, American Movie Classics with Mel Gibson and M. Night Shyamalan, CNN Live Today, Gateway to the Unknown, and many more.

Colin lectures extensively throughout the world to a wide range of audiences. His speaking engagements in 2012 include the National UFO Congress in Arizona, The Inner Light Fellowship in New York, Crop Circle Tours in England, presentations throughout Australia, and Power Places Tours in Chichen Itza.
