Micah Hanks

Author of chapter in Lost Secrets of the Gods: “To the West, the Largest: Giants in Native American Myth and Folklore”

- 1) Your article begins with an examination of petroglyphs around your home in Western North Carolina. What are petroglyphs, and who made the ones you have studied?
- 2) What legends are associated with rock carvings you have studied such as Judaculla Rock?
- 3) Another Cherokee Indian legend tells about “The Giants From the West.” Tell us that story.
- 4) There are numerous reports of giant skeleton finds throughout North America. How do you know that these aren’t all just newspaper hoaxes and the like?
- 5) How big does a very large human skeleton have to be in order for it to qualify as being “giant”?
- 6) Tell us the famous story of the giant bodies found in Lovelock Cave, Nevada.
- 7) It’s been said that The Smithsonian Institute may possess information about giant skeleton finds, but that they continue to keep the information from the public. Do you feel that this is true?
- 8) What other notable instances of giant human remains have you discovered, and are there any which have occurred outside North America?
- 9) Is there historical precedent, looking back to prehistoric times, which might support humans of large size and stature? If so, does the anthropological and archaeological record support this?
- 10) Do you think reports of “Bigfoot” or other manlike beasts that are purported to exist around the world might have anything to do with reports of giant skeletons?

Frank Joseph

Author of chapter in Lost Secrets of the Gods:
“Plato’s Atlantis: Fact or Fiction?”

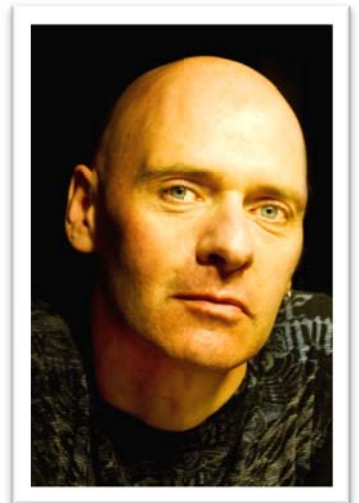

- 1) Did Plato invent the story of Atlantis?
- 2) If so, why?
- 3) If he did not make up Atlantis, how did he learn of it?
- 4) Is there any evidence for Atlantis before Plato?
- 5) Was Atlantis Plato's dramatization of his ideal society?
- 6) How does Plato describe Atlantis?
- 7) When does he say Atlantis was destroyed?
- 8) How does Plato say Atlantis was destroyed?
- 9) Wasn't Plato's story of Atlantis based on the Minoan island of Santorini?
- 10) Is there any physical verification for Plato's story of Atlantis?

Nick Redfern

Author of chapter in Lost Secrets of the Gods:
“Monsters of the Stones”

1. What is the subject of your paper in the new Lost Secrets of the Gods book?
2. Will you define for us what Cryptozoology is?
3. What is the connection between ancient sites and strange creatures?
4. Can you tell us about the sightings of mysterious animals at Stonehenge?
5. What is the link between ancient stone circles and Bigfoot?
6. Did ancient man have knowledge of the existence of lake monsters and Sasquatch?
7. Do the ghosts of Neolithic man haunt the wilds of England?
8. Why are there so many sightings of bizarre beasts in the vicinity of sacred sites?
9. Are creatures such as Bigfoot and werewolves flesh and blood or paranormal?
10. Will you tell us about the monstrous creature of England's stone circle at Avebury?

Paul Von Ward

Author of chapter in Lost Secrets of the Gods:
“We Are the Aliens”

1. Can you explain why your chapter focused on use of the scientific method for discussions about the role of alien beings in pre-historic civilizations?
2. What is the reason that you use the term Advanced Beings or AB instead of aliens?
3. Could you describe some of the anomalous evidence that supports your thesis that humans are alien-hybrids?
4. How do you challenge skeptics like Michael Shermer who simply blow away the notion that advanced beings have already interacted with humans?
5. Can you give a brief description of a popular story of a likely pre-Cataclysm human-alien?
6. How do you assess the likely odds that Noah was a hybrid?
7. Can you use the same methodology to evaluate the story of Goliath and similar so-called myths?
8. What is your take on the narratives about ancient long-lived, human-alien types?
9. How far back can we reasonably date this mixing of ABs with Earthlings?
10. How do you fit the dates this material in the bigger picture of human history?
