By Dr. Ardy Sixkiller Clarke

Dr. Ardy Sixkiller Clarke, author of the best-selling, Encounters with Star People: Untold Stories of American Indians, turns her attention to the examination of the role of Star Travelers, Sky Gods and UFOs among the indigenous people of Central America and Mexico in Sky People: Untold Stories of Alien Encounters in Mesoamerica. Motivated by a teenage vow to follow in the footsteps of two 19th Century explorers, John L. Stephens and Frederick Catherwood who brought the ancient Maya cities to world attention, and her interest in exploring the ancient astronaut theory and ancient legends of the Maya, Dr. Clarke set out on an adventure that took her more than seven years to complete. During that time, she made her way through Belize, Honduras, Guatemala and Mexico following in the footsteps of the adventurous duo and collecting stories of encounters, sky gods, giants, little people and aliens among the indigenous people.

This book chronicles Dr. Clarke's journey and the unique, incredible stories collected along the way. It provides answers to age-old questions in the words of the original people of that region and sheds new light on their connection with the cosmos.
