

ARE WE IN CONTROL OF OUR MINDS?

Surveillance, Social “Engineering” and Mind-Control Techniques are Shaping What We Think

“This exemplary and alarming book is a must read for those who desire a comprehensive understanding of the subversive alteration and modification of human behavior, on a micro and macro scale.”

—RON PATTON, Publisher of MKzine and Paranoia Magazine

San Francisco, CA (March 1, 2015) — From the renowned research team of Marie D. Jones and Larry Flaxman, Mind Wars: A History of Mind Control, Surveillance, and Social Engineering by the Government, Media, and Secret Societies lays out the shocking evidence that we are at the mercy of those who are programming our thoughts.

Best-selling authors of many books on the paranormal, metaphysics, conspiracies and cutting-edge science, Jones and Flaxman have for decades been popular with their fans who have watched them on numerous TV programs and listened to their many public presentations and radio interviews. Known for their groundbreaking discoveries and scholarly investigations, they have laid out in Mind Wars startling revelations of how we are being watched, controlled, programmed, directed, and manipulated, without realizing it.

The desire to control the thoughts, behaviors, and actions of others has been pervasive for centuries. From the use of coercive persuasion by ancient Egyptians and the Knights Templar to today’s electronic harassment and microwave “bombing,” we have been at the mercy of those who wish to control our minds and our shape our beliefs.

Mind Wars is a treasure chest of fascinating, and sometimes disturbing, past history and current accounts:

- Ancient mind control using spell casting, potions, and rituals
- Past and 21st century cults and the use of mental reprogramming
- Modern mind-control techniques: hypnosis, drugs, electroshock, radiation, psychic driving
- The previously hidden story of the quest for a real Manchurian Candidate

- MKUltra and the CIA connection
- Electronic harassment, “voice to skull” technology, gang-stalking

Mind Wars predicts what the future holds for the privacy and the vulnerability of the human mind in the 21st century. Did you think that mind control was just the stuff of conspiracy theories? Think again, and think for yourself—if you still can.
