

STORY ANGLES

The Afterlife Healing Circle

By Candace Talmadge and Jana Simons

Angle #1 – CURRENT AFFAIRS

Headline: Boomers pioneer new views on death, dying

Subhead: Authors pen singular self-help for grief resolution

Suggested visual: A montage of 1960s and 70s footage: Vietnam War protests, Woodstock love-in, Black Power movement, bra burning

They're at it again. The Baby Boomers questioned authority, protested war, and freed women from the home. Now they are transforming the way we look at death and dying. Part of this latest Boomer movement, two Boomer authors teach readers how to heal the wounds of grief.

Angle #2 - PARENTING

Headline: Conscious parenting starts before child's birth

Subhead: Pre-birth communication provides unique 'instruction manual'

Suggested visual: Montage of babies and young children playing and learning

Kids aren't born with instructional manuals. What are confused or anxious parents to do? Why not contact a child still in the womb and ask? Two authors teach explain how to do this, why it is possible, and outline the benefits of pre-birth communication.

Angle #3 - PARANORMAL

Headline: Coincidence? Or psychic message?

Subhead: 'Paranormal' is actually normal, authors assert

Suggested visual: Montage of psi cards, "haunted house" photos, psychic investigators, mediums giving readings

The so-called paranormal is actually normal. What many people think of as extraordinary is, in fact, commonplace, two authors contend. The spiritual abilities inherent in all people make it possible to communicate with loved ones after death—or children before birth. A new book expands our understanding of who we are and what we are capable of being and doing.
