

INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

The Haunted House Diaries

By William J. Hall

1. So what is a paranormal flap?
2. What type of phenomena is occurring there?
3. How did you personally become involved in this project?
4. Your background in this area is as a magician. And like Houdini, you investigated and wrote about the unknown. How did you become convinced this was a real case?
5. Does the home still exist and is it haunted today?
6. Are there photographs or video evidence captured during the investigation?
7. Will folks be able to hear parts of the captured audio or see the video evidence?
8. Were the farmhouse residents where the diary comes from the only haunted house there?
9. What is the history of the area like?
10. Tell us about the diary – what can readers expect to experience?
11. What are a few of the weird things that happened in the house over the years?
12. Why did the family stay in the house? Tell us about the people involved in the farmhouse that serves as the epicenter (or close to) of the flap?
13. What conclusions or insights do you draw from these experiences there?
14. Will readers be kept up to date as the haunting continues?
