The Way of the Spiritual Warrior

By Imre Vallyon

On the Spiritual Warrior Path you do not quit the world: you meet the world head on. And in that meeting, moment-by-moment, there is Enlightenment. The Art of the Warrior is to be enlightened every second of every day. It is not something you look forward to in the future; it is something you live now. The Warrior Path is always in the immediate moment, at this second of time, in your total relationship with the outer world and the world inside you, with the Divine Presence within you and the Divine Presence outside you. It is the conjunction between the God Within, the God Without and the Cosmos in between. This is the Way of the Spiritual Warrior, the Spiritual Path for today.
