

INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

The Rise & Fall of the Nephilim

By Scott Alan Roberts

- What are your credentials, and what do you bring to the table? Why should people listen to what you have to say?
- Is this a book that will fly in the face of organized religion or traditional beliefs?
- Why is it important that you draw your information on the Nephilim from the Bible?
- Are there other source points in history that come from outside religious texts that speak of the Nephilim?
- According to your book, the Nephilim – as referenced in the Bible – are ‘fallen angels.’ Is that your belief?
- Do you believe there is a ‘demonic’ connection to the Nephilim?
- Was there a universal flood in mankind’s pre-history?
- We know the story of Noah and the Ark – are there other stories of this great flood?
- What are some of the commonalities between the story of the great flood in the book of Genesis, and other cultures and religions?
- Who was ‘Gilgamesh?’
- Does the existence of the Nephilim go beyond mere religious tradition?
- Stepping away from theology and spirituality, who do you believe the Nephilim to be?
- Is there any evidence to make the claim that the Nephilim are part of an ‘extra-terrestrial’ race?
- The Nephilim are the offspring of intercourse between humans and some sort of extra-terrestrial or spirit being. So who are the parents?

- The 'Watchers' were the beings who intermingled with the human women?
- Were the Watchers angels or demons or... what?
- What is the Book of Enoch?
- What evidences do you present in your book to establish the idea that the Watchers were alien life forms?
- Is it far fetched to think that aliens could have 'seeded' this world?
- Why did man ascribe the title of 'God' or 'gods' to these beings?
