

INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

The Unfoldment by Neil Kramer

- The title of the book is 'The Unfoldment'. What is the unfoldment?
- How can people claim their personal power and create lives of authenticity and fulfillment?
- What do you mean by dissolving illusions and re-pattern old wiring, liberating the mind from systems of control?
- As well as the theoretical and philosophical material in the book, you give a lot of practical tools for people to use in their day-to-day lives. Tell us more about that.
- Is there a connection between the current changing of the political, social, and economic climate and a need for collective conscious growth?
- What is "emotional alchemy"?
- What are the most important secret teachings that you can tell us about?
- How might I use your book to change my life, and what kind of changes might I make?
- In the book you say that ancient mystical traditions, ideas, and practices are more relevant than ever in our contemporary society. How?
- How did you come to gain all this spiritual and philosophical knowledge in your own life?
- You highlight emotional intelligence as being central to creating a solid platform for conscious and spiritual growth. How does that work?
- You talk about consciousness, philosophy and mysticism, in the book. How do they fit together?
- How do you persuade people from all different backgrounds into engaging with this material?
- What is the single most important message of your book?
